Dear Steve

Thank you very much for your letter of 25 January 1994 and the enclosed completed CAS questionnaire and accompanying documents which I have read with much interest and I would like to make the following comments.

You have included sufficient detail in your questionnaire responses to give me a very clear understanding of the structure and organisation of Jakarta International School's activities programme. It is very apparent that your students have a menu of activities from which to choose which should satisfy the needs of all and meet the CAS requirements.

I am particularly impressed by your evaluation methods and the regular contact that there is between you and your students.

The CAS journal is an excellent idea and I can see how this will encourage IB students to be well organised and to plan ahead.

Thank you also for your suggestions on a speaker for the IB conference in Bali. I would like to meet with Mr [redacted] although I am not sure whether I will be in Jakarta before the Bali conference, having just been there one week ago. It might be better for you to give me his contact details and perhaps if you could spare the time to tell him a little about the IB before I write to him direct. Of course it is important that he knows our theme as it may well not be appropriate to his own field of interest and experience.

I much look forward to hearing from you.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Dear Steve

Thank you for the three randomly chosen students' CAS records which I have read carefully and with much interest.

In their own special ways the records are impressive and indicative of the quality CAS programme you have helped to develop at Jakarta International School and of the students own personal commitment to meet the CAS requirements.

I was especially taken by the overall quality of [redacted]'s records and some of the poignant comments made by [redacted] in her diary account of her summer holiday work at the handicapped children's home in Holland.

Jakarta International School has every right to be proud of its CAS activities programme. It is an exemplar from which many IB schools could learn much.

On the matter of Bali and Mr [redacted], I would like to write to him but do not have an address. Could you send it to me?

With all best wishes,

Yours sincerely
